

A Partnership Built on Quality. A Commitment to Excellence.

Logan Sports Group is proud to announce a new partnership with Pather®, the world's leading display company - bringing together two companies committed to delivering products and experiences at the highest standards in the sports industry.

Our partnership is built on a shared belief: when a client earns a milestone award, it deserves to be displayed with the same level of quality, innovation, and attention to detail that went into achieving it.

By aligning Logan Sports Group's Milestone Awards with Pather's unique, innovative and world renowned premium display solutions, clients can enjoy a complete presentation experience designed to protect, preserve, and showcase their achievements for years to come.

As one of the most unique display companies in the world, Pather® is redefining how collectibles, achievements, and sports milestones are presented and preserved through innovative, premium display solutions.

Great accomplishments deserve a great presentation.

Together, Logan Sports Group and Pather® are raising the standard for how sports milestones are recognized, displayed, and remembered. We are building incredible environments.

We're excited about what this partnership will bring to athletes, teams, organizations, arenas, and fans across the sports industry.

Two trusted brands. One shared standard of excellence. One extraordinary way to put achievements on display.
